Join us for an inspiring evening as journalist Alex Galbinski interviews Robinne Collie, Co-Founder and Events Director of the award-winning social enterprise Cook for Good.

Discover how a chance meeting at the WIZO Commitment Awards sparked a bold idea that she and co-founder Karen Mattison have grown into a thriving social business on a King's Cross housing estate.

Together with their amazing team and local resident volunteers they build community, create opportunities and transform lives through the power of food and cooking.
