

Oxford WIZO AGM
with guest speaker
Micaela Ziv
speaking via Zoom about her Grandmother Rebecca Sieff

After growing up in London, Micaela Ziv followed her grandmother Rebecca and mother Judith to Israel in 1970. She studied at the Hebrew University, becoming an English teacher and later a local and international teacher trainer. Since retiring in 2004, she has worked as a pedagogical consultant, editor, and academic Hebrew-to-English translator.

Of her grandmother, she says: "Although I was too young to fully appreciate her, I knew instinctively that she was someone you don't say 'no' to! Looking back at all she achieved through determination and foresight, I'm very glad that, for the most part, hardly anyone ever did!"
