

Anne Frank WIZO Afternoon Tea

They Tried to Stop Me Doing My Job Because I'm a Jew

Dahlia Stroud chats with Lucie Kon about her experiences of working at the BBC.

Lucie Kon is an award-winning journalist and documentary Executive Producer. Her career includes being the commissioning editor of Storyville, the BBC's international documentary series. Her films have included the Oscar and BAFTA winning "Mr Nobody against Putin" and the Emmy and Rose D'Or winning "Surviving October 7th: We will dance again"

Sunday 10 January 2027 from 2pm
at a North Leeds venue

Openers: Vicky & Paul Gross

Guest of Honour: Elaine Vites

Suggested Voluntary Donation: £25 per person

For tickets please contact
Phillipa: 07715 169 393 or Susan: 07875 121 629

ANNE FRANK WIZO
Changing Lives · Building Futures

Find us online
www.wizouk.org

All proceeds support WIZO's vital work providing life-changing care to women and children across Israel, regardless of religion or background.

Registered charity number: 1125012. Registered company number: 6634748.